Reports:

Chair: Cindy Edmundson

- Alyson applied for our $500 grant and would like to start coming up with ideas
 - Brainstorm ideas to discuss at future meetings
 - We will continue to think about this grant and how we can use it.

Vice Chair: Nicole Vandenberghe

Volunteer Coordinators: Katie Harris

- Food Handling - Bread Slicing - November 9th.
- Nikki can do it in the morning before noon
- Cindy will meet her there on the 9th at 9:15
- Hot Breakfast on November 10th - Katie and Cindy
- We will send a schedule to see if anyone wants to help with making breakfast
- Hot lunch - November 25th - We will discuss how we will get a system in place to watch the kids of volunteers. Colin will look into this and get back to Cindy.

Principal: Colin MacDonald

1. Thank you for a successful Hot lunch!
2. Remembrance Day Ceremony
 - a. At WGM
 - b. Thursday, November 10 @ 10:30
 - c. Veterans Food Bank donations at CES
3. Monday, November 14 – School Based PL Day – Literacy and Data
4. Christmas Concert will be in person at the Crossfield Community Hall
 - a. Tuesday, December 20 – K, 1, and 2 Christmas Carols
 - b. Wednesday, December 21 – Grades 3, 4, and 5 Christmas Concert
 - c. Jacqui Kiernan is the lead and will be reaching out to School Council for support.

Assistant Principal: Lisa Metcalfe

1. Book Fair was a great success - $7,470.05 was raised! We are going to use some of this money to renew class novel sets and special projects.
2. Halloween - parade worked well with families in the gym
3. Crossfield Christmas Market in CES and WGM gym's this weekend!
4. November 15 – 18 – Fire Prevention Week
5. Skating is booked! February 6 - 17. We will need volunteers to look over our skates and laces, and helmets (are they expired?), organize carrying bags, tape, and markers for teachers to make sure they are all in good working order for students to borrow. They are kept in our gym equipment room.
 - a. Katie can send an email to see volunteers.

Trustee: Norma Lang

1. October 21st - Retirement and long service celebration - Jacqui Kiernan - 20 years and Adele Gamble - 30 years. Congratulations to both of them.

2. RVS meeting with Municipal Governments in their area - to go over data and future school planning, reciprocal use agreement - changes will be coming need to talk with superintendent first.
3. CES and WGM are at 89% full between the two schools. A school for Crossfield is in the capital plan. We are in slot 11. Crossfield has a school site ready which is awesome for Crossfield. We are in an election cycle so it is important to speak to MLA's (Nathan Cooper) to let them know that we need more schools
4. Strategic Plan 2023-2026. Finalized 2nd community engagement. We will have something to share in January 2023
5. October 11 - Text messaging system was launched. It is intended for short quick updates that are important and emergent.
6. Olds College, SAIt, U of C - Alberta Government is exploring dual credit opportunities to complete college credits in high school.
7. I have a school Council chair information package for Cindy.
8. 500 Grant - Beiseker, WGM had a discussion about pooling money - check with them about different ideas
9. Advocacy - we are at over 100% capacity in many RVS schools. We need schools announcements to support our growing population.

Old Business: (Items from last meeting):

New Business:

Question Period:

- Yearbooks - are we planning to do yearbooks in the future at CES?
 - Lisa replied that that we trialed creating a yearbook for one year. It did not have a lot of interest for the amount of work it took to create. We decided to leave it for WGM - middle and high school.
